What we do

How does Bank of England protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
We restrict access to non-public personal information about you to employees who need it in the course of doing business with you.

How does Bank of England collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- § Apply for a loan or
- § Provide account information or
- § Give us your income information or
- § Show your driver's license or
- § Use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- § sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- § affiliates from using your information to market to you
- § sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?
